Privacy Disclaimer: The Department of Agriculture & Fisheries is collecting the information on this form to assess your application to register transfer of charter licence. This information is authorised by section 65 of the Fisheries Act. This information will only be accessed by authorised employees within the department. Some information collected on this form is made available to the public in the Register of Authorities under Section 73 of the Fisheries Act 1994 and Section 73 of the Fisheries (General Regulation) 2019. Please be aware that the postal address you provide may be released under a search. You must also provide, for an individual, a residential address, or for a corporation, a registered office address for the purpose of giving notices under fisheries legislation. The residential/registered office address will not be made available under a search of the Register unless it is also the postal address. Your information will not be disclosed to any other parties unless authorised or required by law.

Requirement checklist

To ensure your application to register the transfer is not unduly delayed, please ensure the following requirements are satisfied:

- Payment of fees including any outstanding invoice fees
- Written approval of each person, other than the licence holder, who has an interest in the licence noted in the Register of Authorities
- Provision of a copy of the current company extract (see notes) for each company involved in the above transfer. You may provide a copy with your application, or a copy can be arranged on your behalf by contacting this office (fees apply).

Notes

The information in this checklist is to assist you in complying with the requirements of the Fisheries Act 1994 that relate to the licence to be transferred. It should not be relied on for specific advice. It is not a precise statement of law and deals with matters that are subject to change. Complete copies of the Fisheries Act 1994, regulations and management plans can be accessed via the website <http://www.legislation.qld.gov.au/>

Witnesses to applicants signatures

The transfer must be executed as follows:

- For individuals, signatures must be witnessed by justice of the peace, a commissioner for declarations or for taking affidavits, a lawyer, a barrister, a solicitor or a notary public.
- For a corporation, the form is signed in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, s127 by: either two directors, or a director and a company secretary, or the sole director who is the sole secretary.
- All applicants must be 18 years or over to hold an Authority.

Be aware that on registration of the transfer, all rights and liabilities attaching to the licence vest with the transferee.

Warning against increasing fishing effort

It is the responsibility of the transferee to ascertain whether the fishing authority being transferred may be used for the purposes intended and to seek advice on any current investment warnings or management arrangements, existing or proposed, that could affect the use of the fishing authority. More information on investment warnings is available from the Fisheries Licensing Unit or online at business.qld.gov.au

Company Extract

A company extract is a specific document issued by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission which identifies the directors and secretaries of the company. Please note that a certificate of incorporation is not a company extract.

Transfer Duty (Previously Stamp Duty)

Queensland Transfer Duty may be payable on the transfer of a fishing authority. Further details may be obtained from the Office of State Revenue on telephone 1300 300 734. The Commissioner of Stamp Duties may take action against either the vendor or purchaser when recovering unpaid duty.
