Notes

The information in this checklist is to assist you in complying with the requirements of the Fisheries Act 1994 that relate to the licence(s) to be transferred. It should not be relied on for specific advice. It is not a precise statement of law and deals with matters that are subject to change. Complete copies of the Fisheries Act 1994, regulations and management plans can be accessed via the website www.legislation.qld.gov.au

Witnesses to applicants signatures

The transfer must be executed as follows:

- For individuals, signatures must be witnessed by a justice of the peace, commissioner for declarations or for taking affidavits, a lawyer, a barrister, a solicitor or a notary public.
- For a corporation, the form is signed in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, s127 by: either two directors, or a director and a company secretary, or the sole director who is the sole secretary.
- All applicants must be 18 years or over to hold the licence.

Be aware that on registration of the transfer, all rights and liabilities attaching to the licence vest with the transferee.

Licence card

The transferor must give the licence card to the transferee

Company extract

A company extract is a specific document issued by the Australian Securities and Investment Commission which identifies the directors and secretaries of the company. Please note that a certificate of incorporation is not a company extract.

Information Requirements

By submitting this form, you acknowledge that you are aware of the current quota, logbook and vessel tracking information requirements for operating in Queensland fisheries.

- Vessel tracking requirements for particular fisheries (e.g. net, line, crab, sea cucumber and trawl) apply;
- Particular fisheries are managed by a quota system. Quota entitlement must be held and quota reporting requirements must be completed when operating in these fisheries (e.g. RQ, shark, etc.);
- Logbooks are required to be completed and submitted for each fishery. Please refer to the logbook directions located in the front of your logbook. The logbooks should be passed between the applicants at the time of lodging this application, or a new logbook will be issued to the transferee if the following box is ticked

For further information on your requirements, please call 13 25 23 or visit your local Queensland Boating and Fisheries Patrol Office.

Investment Warning

The transferee should be aware of any current investment warnings or management arrangements existing or proposed, that could affect the use of this licence prior to its transfer being registered. More information on investment warnings is available from the Fisheries Licensing Unit or online at business.qld.gov.au
