

Application to revoke declaration as a prohibited employer

An employer which has been declared as a prohibited employer under Section 59 of the Further Education and Training Act 2014 (Qld) may apply to the Chief Executive to have the declaration revoked. The Chief Executive may completely revoke the declaration if satisfied the employer is no longer considered unsuitable to take on an apprentice or trainee. The Chief Executive may also decide, in certain circumstances, to partly revoke the original declaration.

Revoking of a prohibited employer status will not take effect until a decision has been made by a Department of Trade, Employment and Training (DTET) officer.
