

The State Road Network of Queensland

The Queensland road network is made up of about 184,256km of public roads. The Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR) manages and operates the 33,420km of Queensland's state-controlled road network. This consists of 5,052km of roads on the National Land Transport Network and 28,368km of other state-controlled roads.

Other state-controlled roads include 4177km of State Strategic roads, and 24,191km of Regional and District roads. TMR is also responsible for 29km of dedicated busways.
