QUEENSLAND GOVERNMENT VACANCIES GAZETTE

The Queensland Public Service is committed to equal opportunity in employment. Selection will be given on the basis of merit only and fair consideration will be given to all applicants. The Queensland State Government's policy is to seek to retain skilled staff. Registered deployees who apply for an advertised job will be considered before other applicants. The symbol (g) appears next to vacancies where an exemption from this requirement applies. Deployees are to indicate in their application for the advertised job that they are registered with the Office of the Public Service Commissioner. The Queensland Public Service Commissioner is committed to equal opportunity in employment. Selection will be given on the basis of merit only and fair consideration will be given to all applicants.

CONTINUOUS APPLICANT POOLS

A continuous applicant pool allows you to apply for jobs within an occupation where vacancies are regularly available. This means that agencies can 'dip' into the pool for suitable applicants as soon as they have a vacancy. You can submit or refresh your application at any time. If you are refreshing your application, make sure that you indicate this either on your email or, if sending by post, in a covering letter. In search results, continuous applicant pools can be identified by 'Ongoing' in the 'Closes' column of a search result.

Note: If a continuous applicant pool is closing, applicants will be notified two weeks prior to this date. Applications may be used for up to six months after the pool closes.

MULTI-AGENCY POOLS

Some Queensland Government agencies are on the lookout for people to fill similar jobs or occupations at the same time. Some of these jobs have a fixed closing date and others are ongoing (continuous applicant pools). With multi-agency pools, you only have to apply once to access job opportunities across participating agencies. Your application will then be able to be viewed and assessed by all the agencies in that pool - or, if you prefer, you can specify that you want to be considered only for particular agencies. Make sure you check the specific vacancy to find out how each pool works.

HOW TO APPLY

When you have found the job you would like to apply for.

1. You can phone for a copy of the information kit or you can download the documents from the Smart Jobs and Careers website at www.jobs.qld.gov.au. The information kit will include:
 - the position or job description detailing: background of the department or work area; roles and responsibilities, and selection criteria
 - a job information package, outlining the procedure for preparing and sending in your application, and
 - an application cover sheet.
2. Do your homework - research the agency to understand the background to the job.
3. Prepare your application. This should include your:
 - completed cover sheet (available on jobs online or in the kit mailed to you)
 - covering letter
 - resumé / curriculum vitae
 - names and contact details of (2) referees, and
 - responses to the selection criteria if required.
4. Mail or email your application (Details of where and how are available in either the job description or the job information package).

Check with the job vacancy contact person if you are unsure about how or where to submit your application or how many copies to send. Make sure you send your application by the closing date. If you don't, it may not be accepted. Once your application is received, you will usually be sent a written acknowledgement.

When applying for Continuous Applicant Pools, please check each vacancy for application instructions.

ELECTORAL COMMISSION OF QUEENSLAND

In accordance with Section 63 of the Electoral Act 1992, I have ascertained and set out in Schedule A hereunder, as at the date indicated, the number of electors enrolled in each Electoral District for the State of Queensland and have determined the average district enrolment and the extent to which the number of electors enrolled in each district differs from the average enrolment.

Schedule B indicates the adjusted enrolment for Electoral Districts of 100,000 square kilometres or more in area, being the sum of the number of enrolled electors and the additional large district number as specified in Section 45 of the Act, and the extent to which those districts differ from the average district enrolment in Schedule A.

David Kerslake
Electoral Commissioner

*Transport Infrastructure Act 1994ANCILLARY WORKS AND ENCROACHMENTS NOTICE (No. 1) 2009*Short Title

1. This notification may be cited as the Ancillary Works and Encroachments Notice (No 1.) 2009.

Commencement

2. This notice commences on 20th of March 2009.

Encroachments that require approval

3. Pursuant to section 50 of the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994 (the Act), all ancillary works and encroachments as defined in schedule 6 to the Act (and in regulations), except for those described in paragraph 5 below, must not be constructed, maintained, operated or conducted on any State-controlled road in any region in Queensland without the written approval of the Director-General of the Department of Main Roads (or the chief executive of the agency having control over the administration of Chapter 6 of the Act from time to time).
4. Previous notices for the purposes of section 47 (since renumbered as section 50) of the Act are replaced by this notice and are of no further effect.
5. Ancillary works and encroachments outlined below do not require approval, provided that they do not interfere with a State-controlled road or its operation and they comply with the dimensions, locations, capacity, rigidity and other requirements specified in the following clauses:
 - (a) mail boxes of not more than 50 litres capacity, erected on one or two posts which are not stronger than circular hollow sections of less than 60mm overall diameter and 3.6mm wall thickness, and located not less than 3.5m from the edge of the nearest traffic lane for a State-controlled road;
 - (b) where kerb and channel are present – planting vegetation of a mature height of not more than 0.6m, by a landholder, on a footway adjacent to the landholder's land;
 - (c) where kerb and channel are present in urban areas – shop or building awnings, in existence at the commencement of this notice that do not infringe into a traffic lane, taking road cross-fall into account;
 - (d) minor vegetation trimming and maintenance (including mowing grass or weeds) by a landholder on a footpath adjacent to the landholder's land and other than any area signed as a significant environmental area, that does not involve clearing of any tree or shrub;
 - (e) holding meetings on footpaths where participants are standing, no furniture is involved and the activity is not associated with a commercial activity;
 - (f) for rural properties adjacent to and with direct access to the road – property name signs (for example 'Upson Downs') erected on one or two posts which are not stronger than circular hollow sections of 60mm overall diameter and 3.6mm wall thickness, located not less than 9m from the edge of the nearest traffic lane;
 - (g) temporary grazing of stock during daylight hours, on roads where kerb and channel are not present, provided a permit from the local government is held for the grazing, the stock is enclosed in a portable electric fence, fence posts are not stronger than circular hollow sections of 60mm overall diameter and 3.6mm wall thickness and located not less than 3.5m from the edge of the nearest traffic lane;
 - (h) fundraising and promotional activities by community based groups, on a paved footway, other than on a median strip or within 3m of a pedestrian crossing, involving no furniture other than one table with a maximum diagonal length of 2m and two chairs, if pedestrian traffic is not unreasonably obstructed; _
 - (i) rubbish and rubbish bins approved by a local government for a rubbish collection service provided by a local government, when in place for collection as prescribed by the service provider;
 - (j) hoses, of not greater than 40mm overall diameter, and sprinklers used for watering vegetation if pedestrian movements are not unreasonably impeded;
 - (k) camping in rural areas that is more than 9 metres from the edge of the nearest traffic lane of the State-controlled road and is not prohibited by regulation;
 - (l) minor sporting activities;
 - (m) sporting activities that require a permit from the Queensland Police Service;
 - (n) advertising signs for real estate, charity prize homes, Neighbourhood Watch signs, elections, businesses and public notices on land, other than on motorways or freeways, in local government areas where the same signs are permitted on local government roads, that comply with the following requirements:
 - (i) for a property adjacent to and with direct access to the road – for real estate and charity prize home signs and only where the signs would otherwise be obstructed from view if located on the property, one sign with a maximum area of 2.4 square metres and one sign with a maximum area of 0.6 square metres and located immediately adjacent to the property boundary. In rural areas where the visibility of the real estate sign or charity prize home sign is restricted due to vegetation or large setback distances, the smaller sign (0.6 square metres) may be located to comply with subparagraphs (v), (vi) and (vii) below; and
 - (ii) Neighbourhood Watch signs that are located on street name sign posts and not longer or wider than 225mm, unless another size is mutually agreed by the Queensland Police Service, the Department of Main Roads and the local government for the area; and
 - (iii) election signs with a maximum area of 0.6 square metres each, in numbers and size complying with local government requirements, located to comply with subparagraphs (v), (vi) and (vii) below, for a period commencing after the official announcement of an election and ending 7 days (or less if required by the relevant local government) after the election polling day; and

- (iv) for signs relating to products or services available at a business premises – the signs may be displayed only during trading hours –
 - (A) where kerb and channel are present in urban areas – one A-frame type footway sign with maximum height of 1m and maximum width of 0.6m and maximum depth of 0.6m, located on the footpath immediately outside a building in which the products or services are available, provided it is located as close as practicable to the building and does not disrupt the movement of pedestrians;
 - (B) in rural and zoned industrial areas – two A-frame type signs with maximum height of 1.5m, maximum width of 1m and maximum depth of 1m, located immediately outside a building in which the products or services are available that comply with subparagraphs (v), (vi) and (vii) below;
 - (v) for signs made of light frangible materials, for example corflute erected on a timber stake no bigger than 50 mm x 25 mm) –
 - (A) in 80km/h and lower speed environments – signs must not be closer than 3.5m from the edge of the nearest traffic lane; and
 - (B) for road speed environments greater than 80 km/h – signs must not be closer than 6m from the edge of the nearest traffic lane;
 - (vi) for signs made of heavier materials – signs must not be in the clear zone as defined in chapter 8.1 of the Road Planning and Design Manual maintained by the Department of Main Roads;
 - (vii) all signs must be located as close as practicable to the property boundary;
 - (viii) for business advertising on awnings – signs must not infringe into a traffic lane, taking road cross-fall into account; advertising must apply only to products or services available or business names for the business conducted from a building to which the awning is attached; clearance underneath the signs must be at least 2.5m; and signs must not move, may be illuminated but not flash.
 - (ix) for public notices on land requirements as prescribed under the Integrated Planning Act 1997
 - (x) Signs permitted by an Advertising Management Plan (that is approved by the Department of Main Roads) for display without further written approval under Transport Infrastructure Act 1994 section 50.
 - (o) roadside memorials, as defined in the Department of Main Roads -Guideline for Roadside Memorials “the Guideline” with a maximum height above ground of 750mm, maximum depth below ground level of 400mm and maximum width of 500mm and placed in an appropriate location as required by the Guideline.
6. For ancillary works and encroachments listed in paragraph 5, the following criteria are examples of situations where ancillary works or an encroachment will be deemed to interfere with a State-controlled road or its operation: if anything -
- (a) is attached to a tree(except for roadside memorials) or road furniture (for example guide posts or traffic signs);
 - (b) interferes with the clear sight distance of motorists or pedestrians;
 - (c) overhangs any portion of a traffic lane for a State-controlled road;
 - (d) unreasonably distracts road users through illumination;
 - (d) presents a hazard to road users; or
 - (e) interferes with or restricts the movement of pedestrians or cyclists.
