Instructions

Please use BLOCK letters when you fill out this form. Attach extra sheets if necessary. All dates should be DD/MM/YYYY. Place a tick in the appropriate box, where applicable.

Incomplete applications

Failure to correctly complete this form or provide all information, fees and documents requested may result in the application being returned to you by post which will delay the issuing of your licence.

Please note

Under the Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 1992, if you have an occupational licence issued in a State or Territory of the Commonwealth, you are entitled to have that licence recognised in Queensland under most, but not all, circumstances. Under the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 2003, people registered in New Zealand have the same rights.

Applicants are deemed to be licensed in Queensland once they possess a receipt for the application fee and hold a current, equivalent licence at the time of lodgement. Deemed registration will continue until the licence is either granted or refused, provided that the interstate licence remains current.

Applicants from New Zealand please note: You are requested to advise the department in writing of the specific function or functions, that you yourself performed on your 'certificate of approval to be the employee of a security guard.' As a licence under the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 2003 can only be granted for an equivalent licence in Queensland, this information is required to assess which category of licence you are eligible for in Queensland.

If you were born in New Zealand or have a New Zealand passport, you need to get a copy of your criminal history or a letter indicating you have no criminal history from New Zealand. For more information, visit the New Zealand Ministry of Justice website www.justice.govt.nz

We can only accept original documents dated within one month of the date you send them to us. Please note, it can take up to 20 working days to process a request for a New Zealand criminal history check. There is no fee payable for you to get a New Zealand criminal history check.

Privacy statement—please read

The Office of Fair Trading (OFT) collects information, including personal information, on this form as required by the Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 1992 and the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 2003 to process your application. In accordance with these Acts, some personal information may be passed on to police services in Australia (including federal, states and territories) for criminal history searches. Enquiries may also be made with the Department of Home Affairs to verify eligibility to work in Australia. Your name will be placed on a register which may be inspected by the public upon payment of a prescribed fee. Additionally, information on this form can be disclosed without your consent where authorised or required by law. Under the Fair Trading Act 1989 information may also be shared on a confidential basis with other Australian fair trading agencies.

If you give the OFT an email address to communicate with you, the personal information in these communications will be stored on your email service provider's servers. These servers may be outside of Australia. By giving us your email address, you are consenting to the personal information contained within the emails to and from the OFT to be transferred outside Australia.

No GST payable on the licence fees.

Change of details

If at any time your licence details and suitability requirements change, you must notify the Office of Fair Trading within 7 days.

Suitability Relevant control order, in relation to a licence, means a control order or registered corresponding control order that restricts the person to whom the order applies from carrying on a business, engaging in an occupation or performing an activity that requires the licence.	Criminal history A mandatory criminal history check will be conducted on all applicants. Processing of the application will not be progressed until this fee is paid. People who have been convicted of a disqualifying offence as defined in the Queensland Security Providers Act 1993 within ten years of applying for a licence in Queensland are not considered to be appropriate to hold a licence. Please refer to Attachment C for a list of disqualifying offences under the Security Providers Act 1993. As eligibility criteria in relation to criminal history varies significantly between states and territories, people who have been convicted of any offences in the ten years prior to submitting an application should check their eligibility prior to lodging an application. Control orders You are not a suitable person to hold a licence under the Security Providers Act 1993 if you are subject to a relevant control order as defined under the Security Providers Act 1993.
Fingerprinting Already fingerprinted	Fingerprints must be undertaken on all applicants. A mandatory fingerprinting fee is payable in addition to the application fee and criminal history check fee. The fingerprinting fee is payable at the time of lodging the original application and will not need to be paid again unless your licence expires. So that your application for a licence can be considered, all applicants are required to have fingerprints taken by the Queensland Police Service. You will be advised in writing of the process to have your fingerprints taken after your application is lodged. An appointment must be made before attending a police station to have your fingerprints taken for the purpose of this licence. You should read the mandatory fingerprinting privacy statement attached to this application. While you have a current licence under the Security Providers Act 1993 you only need to have your fingerprints taken once. This applies even if you apply for any additional security licences. However, you do need to give your fingerprints again if you have had them taken for another reason. For instance, you may have been fingerprinted if you hold a gaming or weapons licence or hold a blue card.

Mandatory fingerprinting privacy statement

Under the Security Providers Act 1993 (the Act), the Office of Fair Trading requires your fingerprints to be taken to confirm your identity and to undertake ongoing probity checks under section 20 of the Act.

Your fingerprints will be taken by specially trained Queensland Police Service staff who are authorised to do so. Once your fingerprints are taken, they will be securely stored by the Queensland Police Service Fingerprint Bureau. Your fingerprints will also be uploaded onto the National Automated Fingerprint Identification System (NAFIS). NAFIS is operated and secured by CrimTrac, the Australian Government agency that also provides the criminal history search service. As a Commonwealth agency, CrimTrac must operate in accordance with the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988.

Criminal History Checks will still be conducted on every licensee and any additional names identified by the initial fingerprint identification process will also have criminal history searches conducted against them.

Ongoing probity checks will be performed daily by comparing fingerprints stored on NAFIS against unidentified latent fingerprints from unsolved crime scenes. This is in addition to overnight matching of licence details against the Queensland Police Service database to determine if a licensee has been charged with a disqualifying offence.

Fingerprint records will also be available to other police services in Australia. However, your fingerprints will NOT be available to the Office of Fair Trading.

As your fingerprints are only required while your security provider licence is current, once your licence ceases, because it has expired, the application has been withdrawn, or the Chief Executive has cancelled your licence or has refused to renew your licence, your fingerprints will be destroyed. The fingerprint records to be destroyed will only be the fingerprints taken as part of the security provider licence process. The destruction will include the copy stored at the Fingerprint Bureau and the security provider licence fingerprint record stored on NAFIS. The destruction will be performed by two highly qualified fingerprint specialists and will be done in the presence of a Justice of the Peace. Destruction will be scheduled automatically after all appeal rights are exhausted. You will not have to request to have this done.

Disqualifying offences

Definition

A person is not an appropriate person to hold a licence if the person, within ten years of applying for a licence, has been convicted of a disqualifying offence; or an offence that would be a disqualifying offence if committed in Queensland.

Disqualifying offence means an offence:

- a) under the Weapons Act 1990 that is punishable by imprisonment for one year or more, even if a fine may be imposed in addition or as an alternative
- b) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986 that is punishable by imprisonment for one year or more, even if a fine may be imposed in addition or as an alternative
- c) against the Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 10.19(b), (c), (d), (e) or (f)
- d) against a provision of the Criminal Code of the Commonwealth, part 5.3, or a law of a State, or an overseas country, that relates to terrorism
- e) against a provision of the Criminal Code mentioned at the right: or that is a prescribed offence within the meaning of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161N; and committed with a serious organised crime circumstance of aggravation within the meaning of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161Q
