A mandatory fingerprinting fee is payable in addition to the licensing fees and criminal history check fee. The fingerprinting fee is payable at the time of lodging the original application and will not need to be paid again unless your licence expires.

So that your application for a licence can be considered, all applicants are required to have fingerprints taken by the Queensland Police Service. You will be advised in writing of the process to have your fingerprints taken after you application is lodged. An appointment must be made before attending a police station to have your fingerprint taken for the purpose of this licence. You should read the mandatory fingerprinting privacy information statement attached to this application.

Already fingerprinted

While you have a current licence under the Tattoo Industry Act 2013 you only need to have your fingerprints taken once.

However, you do need to give your fingerprints again if you have had them taken for another reason. For instance, you may have been fingerprinted for a security or gaming or weapons licence or blue card.

PLEASE NOTE:

Under the Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 1992, if you have an occupational licence issued in a State or Territory of the Commonwealth, you are entitled to have that licence recognised in Queensland under most, but not all, circumstances. Applicants are deemed to be licensed in Queensland once they possess a receipt for the application fee and hold a current, equivalent licence at the time of lodgement. Deemed registration will continue until the licence is either granted or refused provided that the interstate licence remains current.

Mandatory fingerprinting privacy statement

Under the Tattoo Industry Act 2013 (the Act), the Office of Fair Trading requires your fingerprints to be taken to confirm your identity and to undertake ongoing probity checks under section 35E of the Act.

Your fingerprints will be taken by specially trained Queensland Police Service staff who are authorised to do so. Once your fingerprints are taken, they will be securely stored by the Queensland Police Service Fingerprint Bureau. Your fingerprints will also be uploaded onto the National Automated Fingerprint Identifications System (NAFIS). NAFIS is operated and secured by Crim Trac, the Australian Government agency that also provides the criminal history search service. As a Commonwealth agency, Crim Trac must operate in accordance with the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988.

Criminal History Checks will still be conducted on every licensee and any additional names identified by the initial fingerprint identification process will also have criminal history searches conducted against them.

Ongoing probity checks will be performed daily by comparing fingerprints stored on NAFIS against unidentified latent fingerprints from unsolved crime scenes. This in addition to overnight matching of licence details against the Queensland Police Service database to determine if a licensee has been charged with a serious criminal offence.

Fingerprint records will also be available to other police services in Australia. However, your fingerprints will NOT be available to the Office of Fair Trading.

If your application is withdrawn or refused, the chief executive will ask the Commissioner of Police to destroy your fingerprints as soon as practicable. Destruction will be scheduled automatically after appeal rights are exhausted.

If you allow your tattoo licence to expire, you may apply to the Commissioner of Police to have your fingerprints, collection under section 35E, destroyed. If the Commissioner grants your request, your fingerprints will be destroyed as soon as practicable in the presence of a Justice of the Peace.
