Assessment and Outcomes

How long will it take to get my rebate?

If you are eligible and have provided all the required documentation the rebate will be paid within 20 working days.

How do I track my claim?

Once the claim form is submitted, you will receive an automatic acknowledgement of receipt of the claim form. After assessment is complete, you will receive notification of eligibility and the rebate amount to be paid (if you are eligible). If all the required documentation has been received the rebate will be paid within 20 days.

I lost my proof of purchase for the tools, can I still make a claim, for example with a statutory declaration?

If you are unable to contact the supplier where the tools were purchased to obtain a reprint of your receipt, email freetoolsforfirstyears@desbt.qld.gov.au. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

I'm eligible but I'm not sure if what I've purchased would be considered eligible tools?

Tools of the trade refer to essential items required to perform your job, including but not limited to tool kits, hammers, hand saws, cordless drills etc.

Consumable items are not eligible including but not limited to nails, adhesives, PPE, workwear, and paints.

I purchased my tools during my probationary period, will I receive the rebate?

Yes, as long as you meet the eligibility criteria, and your claim is for eligible tools.

I purchased my tools prior to commencing my apprenticeship, will I receive the rebate?

No, you must have been active in your apprenticeship on the date the tools were purchased.

Funding

What is the maximum rebate I can receive?

You will be reimbursed for the purchase of any industry relevant tools up to a maximum value of $1,000, with proof of purchase.

What is the minimum rebate I can receive?

There is no minimum amount however, you can only claim once so think carefully about what industry relevant tools you need.

I didn't include all tools when I submitted my claim – can I add them to my claim?

You cannot add to your claim if your claim has already been processed and the rebate has been paid.

I purchased an eligible tool for $1999, can I claim for this purchase?

Yes, however you will only be reimbursed for the maximum rebate of $1,000.

Why is my rebate less than I asked for?

Your claim may have included ineligible items.

I haven't purchased the tools yet but have the invoice, can I make a claim and get the money before I go and buy the tools?

No, to be eligible for the rebate you must provide proof of purchase or receipts, for the tools purchased.

Unsuccessful Applicants

My claim was deemed ineligible, can I appeal the decision?

Yes, appeals must be lodged in writing. You will be notified in writing of the appeal outcome within 21 business days from receipt of the appeal.

I wasn't reimbursed at all from my first claim, can I claim again?

This will depend on the reason the claim wasn't paid. You will be notified of the reason your claim wasn't paid.
