

[Animation: Blue male and female figures moving through a dark orange background with a light orange design on it.]

[Male speaker]

Which way gambling? Big issue for us?

[Female speaker]

Gambling is a risky business, and when it takes over, it can affect all of your life.

[Animation: Blue feet stepping over a yellow line.]

[Male speaker]

There is a line and we may not know when we have crossed it.

[Animation: Male figure looking over a yellow line. Three speaking bubbles pop up in the sky, containing images of the sun, people, and a brain.]

[Female speaker]

When gambling has become harmful for us fellas. It can affect our spirit, our identity, our family and friends and even our health.

[Animation: Blue foot being pulled over a yellow line by a waft of yellow smoke. The image changes to two hands reaching towards each other from the left and right corners of the screen. The image changes again to a man providing support to a woman.]

[Male speaker]

We are a people that are strong in culture and family. Some days may be harder than others. It doesn't have to be that way. By reconnecting and starting the yarning circle with our family and the community, we can stay on the right side of the line.

Animation: Two fellas smiling at the woman who was being supported in the last animation. The image changes to a group of seven silhouetted people supporting each other by holding hands and patting each other's backs. The website [www.gamblinghelpqld.org.au/startyarning appears at the bottom of the screen, then fades and is replaced by the phone number 1800 858 858.]

[Female speaker]

Together, we can take back our power over gambling and strengthen our spirit. There is even a free support service called Gambling Help Queensland that can give you tips and ideas about how to manage gambling.

Jump onto the website or give them a call on 1800 858 858.

[Male speaker]

Here now, make your family and your young ones proud.

[Animation: The words "Be brave!" appear in the middle of the orange background, then fade and are replaced with the words "Let's start yarning". The words "Get free and confidential culturally safe support" appear at the top of the animation.]

[Female speaker]

Be brave and let's start yarning about gambling.

[Textual image: The Queensland Government Coat of Arms is shown on a black screen.]

[Textual image: A black screen with the text "Authorised by the Queensland Government, William Street, Brisbane."]