4. Regional employer rate discount

Regional employers may be entitled to a discount of 1% on the imposed payroll tax rate.

An employer is a regional employer if their principal place of employment is in regional Queensland, and they pay at least 85% of taxable wages to regional employees.

A principal place of employment is the employer's registered business address as per the Australian Business Register if they have an ABN. Otherwise, it is the place at which their principal place of business is located.

A regional employee is someone whose principal place of residence is in regional Queensland.

Townsville

• Wide Bay

Regional Queensland is defined as the following areas identified in the Australian Bureau of Statistics 2021 Statistical Area 4 (SA4) map:

- Cairns
 Queensland—Outback
- Central Queensland
- Darling Downs Maranoa
- Mackay—Isaac—Whitsunday

Regional employers who pay above the wage threshold (i.e. $350 million for a full financial year) are not entitled to receive the discount.

Go to qro.qld.gov.au/payroll-tax to learn more about the regional employer rate discount.
