

FORM QRO—D2.4

Version 9—Effective 10 September 2024

Duties Act 2001 sections 155 and 246AK

Guide to completing a notice for reassessment of transfer duty—home, first home or first home vacant land concession

Keep this guide for future reference.

Meaning of terms used in this form are on page 2 of this guide.

When to complete this form

Complete this form within 28 days if you received the benefit of a home, first home or first home vacant land concession and any of the following apply:

- You did not occupy the residence as your home within:
 - 1 year of the transfer date (for home or first home concessions)
 - 2 years of the transfer date (for first home vacant land concessions).
- Before occupying the residence as your home, you:
 - sold or transferred all or part of the property
 - leased a room or another part of the property
 - leased the whole property
 - granted exclusive possession to another person.
- Within 1 year of occupying the residence, you:
 - sold or transferred all or part of the property
 - leased a room or another part of the property (if the arrangement started before 10 September 2024 or after 30 June 2025)
 - leased the whole property
 - granted exclusive possession to another person.
- There was an existing tenant who:
 - extended or renewed their lease
 - did not vacate after the end of their current term (e.g. stayed on under a week-to-week lease)
 - did not vacate the property within 6 months of the transfer date.
- The former owner did not vacate the property within 6 months of the transfer date.
- You did not finish building your residence within 2 years of the transfer date (for first home vacant land concessions).
- You demolished or removed the existing residence without living there.
- You acquired leasehold property and surrendered the lease before or within 1 year of occupation.
- You were never eligible to claim the concession (e.g. claimed a first home vacant land concession, but there was a shed or other structure on the property).
- You otherwise did not meet a concession requirement in a manner not listed above.

Special circumstances

If you believe you have special circumstances, such as the residence being damaged by a natural disaster or the death or incapacity of the owner, provide a written explanation in Part F of the form. In some cases, you may not have to repay the concession.

When not to complete this form

You do not need to complete this form if you received the benefit of a concession and any of the following apply:

- You transferred part of the land to your spouse and the transfer was exempt from duty under s.151 of the Duties Act 2001.
- You entered into a retirement village leasing arrangement for a residence you acquired.
- You leased or granted exclusive possession of part of the property and the arrangement started on or after 10 September 2024 and before 30 June 2025.

Other parties to the transaction

If you claimed a concession with another person, include their details at Part B.

- Complete one form if your circumstances are the same.
- Complete separate forms if your circumstances differ (e.g. different occupation dates).

We will issue one reassessment notice only.

Lodgement options

You can complete and lodge this form online, or by email or post.

- Online: www.qld.gov.au/reassess-my-home
- Email: dg.compliance@treasury.qld.gov.au
- Post: Commissioner of State Revenue, GPO Box 2593, Brisbane Qld 4001

Duty, interest and penalties

Your transaction may be reassessed, requiring you to pay back all or part of the concession. Unpaid tax interest and penalty tax may also apply.

If you received a foreign retiree exemption from additional foreign acquirer duty (AFAD), you may also have to pay back all or part of the exemption.

Failing to give notice that you are no longer able to meet the requirements for the concession is an offence. Penalties may apply.

Meaning of terms

Exclusive possession

Exclusive possession generally means the right to exclude all others, including the owner, from all or part of the property.

Whether exclusive possession has been granted depends on either:

- the terms of the agreement, if it is in writing
- the particular facts and circumstances of the arrangement, if there is no written agreement.

Home

A residence is your home if you occupy it as your principal place of residence (i.e. you live in it with your belongings on a daily basis).

Occupation date

The occupation date is the date the person, as owner of the residence, starts occupying it as their principal place of residence.

Property

Property is land, including any residence that is, or will be, constructed on the land.

Residence

A residence is a building, or part of a building, that is all the following:

- fixed to land
- designed, or approved by a local government, for human habitation by a single family unit
- used for residential purposes.

Specified foreign retiree

A specified foreign retiree is an individual who:

- holds a retirement visa (subclass 405 or 410)
or
- applied for a parent visa (subclass 103) or contributory parent visa (subclass 143) on or after 8 May 2018 and the application is pending, and the last substantive visa held before applying is a retirement visa (subclass 405 or 410).

Transfer date

The transfer date is the date you were entitled to possession. This is usually the date of settlement or the date the land is vested in your name.
