

Responsible dog breeding

is everyone's responsibility.

Is your dog having puppies? If so, you're considered a breeder under the law and must be registered on the Queensland Dog Breeder Register.

It only takes a few minutes to register for free online.

is everyone's responsibility.

Are you considering getting a new dog or puppy?
If so, then first visit the Queensland Dog Breeder Register to check the dog comes from a registered breeder.

You can also report unregistered breeders or any welfare concerns that you have.
