- an appointee who, but for the acceptance of a contract for a fixed term under sections 69 and 70 of the Act, would have been appointed to a tenured public service position of a kind normally occupied by an officer,

General principles relating to contracts for a fixed term

1. The department in which the contract is being considered may take into account the following circumstances –

- to recruit or attract a person or persons with specialist skills for a major project;
