Commission Chief Executive Directive No. 07/12: Protection of Personal Employee Information

1 Purpose:

Where an industrial instrument provides for the release of personal information to a third party that information is not to be provided to the third party unless the employee provides express written consent to the employer specifically authorising its release.

2 Application:

This directive applies to all chief executives and employees under the Public Service Act 2008.

3 Legislative Provision: Public Service Act 2008 – sections 52(2) and 53.

4 Effective date: 31 July 2012

5 Inconsistency:

Pursuant to section 52(2) of the Public Service Act 2008, this directive prevails over an industrial instrument.

6 Definitions:

“Personal Information” is information about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can reasonably be ascertained from the information.

“Third Party” means a person or entity which is not the employee or a government entity.

“Industrial Instrument” as defined in the Public Service Act 2008.

7 Ruling:

Where an industrial instrument provides for the release of personal information to a third party that information is not to be provided to the third party unless the employee provides express written consent to the employer specifically authorising its release.

Commission Chief Executive Directive No. 08/12: Industrial Instruments: Employment Security and Contracting Out Provisions

1 Purpose:

Where there are provisions for Employment Security or Contracting Out in an industrial instrument, the Employment Security or Contracting Out provisions contained in the industrial instrument do not apply.

2 Application:

This directive applies to all chief executives and employees under the Public Service Act 2008.

3 Legislative Provision: Public Service Act 2008 – sections 52(2) and 53.

4 Effective date: 31 July 2012

5 Inconsistency:

Pursuant to section 52(2) of the Public Service Act 2008, this directive prevails over an industrial instrument.

6 Definitions:

“Employment Security” includes job security, maximising permanent employment, references to the Government’s Employment Security Policy and other like provisions. Employment Security does not include the Termination, Change and Redundancy (TCR) provisions contained in awards.

Examples of Employment Security—

- 1) Part 7 – Employment Security and Permanent Employment, of the State Government Departments Certified Agreement 2009
- 2) Appendix 21 – Employment Security Policy, of the State Government Departments Certified Agreement 2009
