Guide to claiming a first home vacant land concession

Version 13—Effective 6 December 2024

Duties Act 2001 sections 19(3), 95, 246 and 246H

Land Tax Act 2010 section 78(3)

Taxation Administration Act 2001 section 113D(1)

Queensland
Government

Keep this guide for future reference. It contains important information about the concession and your obligations after you receive the concession.

Eligibility

To be eligible for a first home vacant land concession, you must:

- be acquiring vacant land
- have never held an interest in a residence anywhere in Australia or overseas
- have never received the benefit of a first home vacant land concession on another property
- be acquiring vacant land valued at less than $500,000
- be paying market value if the vacant land is valued between $350,001 and $499,999 (see special circumstances on page 1)
- build a house on the vacant land and occupy it within 2 years of the transfer date
- not sell, transfer, lease or otherwise grant exclusive possession to the property before moving in to the new house
- be a natural person (see special circumstances on page 2)
- not be acting as trustee (see special circumstances on page 2)
- be at least 18 years of age (see special circumstances on page 2).

Keeping the concession

To keep the benefit of the concession, there are certain obligations you must meet.

- As the owner, you must move into the new house within 2 years of the transfer date and make it your home.
- You must not sell, transfer, lease or otherwise grant exclusive possession of all or part of the property (including a room) before moving into the new house.
- You must not sell, transfer, lease or otherwise grant exclusive possession of all of the property within the first 12 months of occupying the new house.
- You must not lease or otherwise grant exclusive possession of part of the property (including a room) within the first 12 months of occupying the new house, if the arrangement starts before 10 September 2024.

If you do not meet any of the above obligations, you must notify us within 28 days by completing a notice of reassessment of transfer duty—home, first home or vacant land concession (Form D2.4).

Special circumstances

Evidence of value

You'll need to provide independent evidence of value if you're paying less than the market value or you're acquiring the property from a relative or an associated entity.

We will generally accept a market appraisal given by a real estate agent, if it contains three recent comparable sales.

Paying less than market value

If you are paying less than the market value and the vacant land is valued at more than $350,000, you will not be eligible for the concession. For example, if you are gifted vacant land with a market value of $380,000, you will not receive the concession.

Trustee

Trustees, including corporate trustees, may be eligible for a concession where all of the following are met:

- The trust is not a discretionary or unit trust.
- All the beneficiaries of the trust are under a legal disability.
- All the beneficiaries will occupy the house as their home.
- None of the beneficiaries have ever received the benefit of a first home vacant land concession.
- None of the beneficiaries have ever held an interest in a residence anywhere in Australia or overseas.

A concession is unable to be claimed where a person, having held the property as trustee, starts to hold the property other than as trustee.

Under 18 years

To claim a concession as a minor, you need to apply to us first so we can determine if we should make an exception to the age requirement. Minors can only claim a concession if we are satisfied that the transaction is not part of a scheme to avoid transfer duty. We will consider the following factors:

- your age
- the way in which the vacant land purchase agreement is structured
- the reason for the purchase
- the living arrangements for you and your family once the house is constructed
- the family arrangements generally
- whether the funds to purchase the vacant land were independently sourced.

Completing this form

This form has 8 parts (labelled A to H). If there are more than 2 transferors or transferees, attach additional pages with details for Parts C, E and H where applicable. All transferees claiming a concession must sign at Part H.

When completing the form, corporate trustees should enter their name in the 'First name' field in Part E, and provide an ACN or ARBN.

An administrator appointed under the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000 may sign this declaration on behalf of claimants with impaired capacity.

Ensure all your contact details are provided—we may need to discuss your claim with you.

Identity details annexure

Each non-Australian transferor and transferee must complete an identity details annexure. The identity details annexure is available from publications.qld.gov.au.

Lodging the documents

If you have a legal adviser, you should give them the documents for the dutiable transaction and the completed Form D2.7. If you do not have a legal adviser, or settlement or lodging agent, you can lodge with the Commissioner of State Revenue for assessment. Send the form and your documents to GPO Box 2593, Brisbane Qld 4001. You will be notified by email or text message when your documents are received.

Meaning of terms

Additional foreign acquirer duty

Additional foreign acquirer duty (AFAD) is an extra amount of duty that applies to transactions that are liable for transfer duty. AFAD applies when all the following apply:

- You are acquiring property.
- You are a foreign person.
- Your transaction involves property (including chattels or existing rights) that is, or will be, solely or primarily used for residential purposes.

Dutiable value

The dutiable value is either the unencumbered value of the property (usually the market value) or the amount you agree to pay (your consideration) for the transaction—whichever is higher.

Exclusive possession

Exclusive possession generally means the right to exclude all others, including the owner, from all or part of the property. Whether exclusive possession has been granted depends on the:

- terms of the agreement, if it is in writing
- particular facts and circumstances of the arrangement, if there is no written agreement.

Foreign corporation

A foreign corporation is one that is incorporated outside Australia or in which foreign persons, or related persons of foreign persons, have a controlling interest of at least 50%.

Foreign individual

You are a foreign individual if you are not an Australian citizen or permanent resident.

Foreign person

A foreign person is a foreign individual, foreign corporation or trustee of a foreign trust.

Foreign trust

A trust is foreign if at least 50% of its interests are trust interests of:

- foreign individuals
- foreign corporations
- trustees of a foreign trust
- related persons of any of the above, including partners in a partnership.

Home

A house is your home if you occupy it as your principal place of residence (i.e. you live in it with your belongings on a daily basis).

Non-Australian entity

A non-Australian entity refers to:

- individuals who are not Australian citizens (non-Australian individuals include permanent residents)
- companies incorporated outside Australia
- trusts with a country of tax residence that is not Australia
- other bodies (e.g. body politic, corporation sole) formed outside Australia.

Permanent resident

A permanent resident holds a permanent visa, or is a New Zealand citizen with a special category visa, as defined by the Migration Act 1958 (Cwlth).

Property

Property is land, including any residence that is, or will be, constructed on the land.

Real property description

The lot number, plan type, plan number and title reference are shown on the agreement for sale or the title search for the land that you or your solicitor obtained from the Titles Registry.

Residence

A building or part of a building in Queensland that is:

- fixed to land
- designed, or approved by a local government, for human habitation by a single family unit
- used for residential purposes.

Examples include houses, units and apartments.

Specified foreign retiree

A specified foreign retiree is an individual (but, for the purposes of this form, not an agent) who:

- holds a retirement visa (subclass 405 or 410)
or
- applied for a parent visa (subclass 103) or contributory parent visa (subclass 143) on or after 8 May 2018 and the application is pending, and the last substantive visa held before applying is a retirement visa (subclass 405 or 410).

Transfer date

This is the date the transferees are entitled to possess the property; usually the date of settlement or the date the land is vested in your name.

Vacant land

Land is vacant land if:

- when you acquired the land, there was no building or part of a building on the land
- a house is to be constructed on the land.
