

Gifts and Benefits Register – Quarter 3, January to March 2017

Date given or received	Description of gift or benefit	Value	Name of donor	Name of recipient	For gifts received was the gift: a) retained by employee; or b) Retained by agency	Reasons for accepting or giving (what is the benefit to the Queensland community)	Name of accountable officer or supervisor
Gifts given
No gifts valued at more than $150 were registered in Quarter 3 as given by the Department of Justice and Attorney-General.
Gifts received
Between 8/07/2016 and 8/09/2016	Approximately 40,000 books	Unknown	Ipswich Library	Borallon Training and Correctional Centre (BTCC)	Department	BTCC needed books to set up a library for the centre commissioning. Ipswich Library was approached and offered to donate books being cleaned out as old stock to allow for newly purchased books.	David Mackie Director-General, DJAG.

Date given or received	Description of gift or benefit	Value	Name of donor	Name of recipient	For gifts received was the gift: a) retained by employee; or b) Retained by agency	Reasons for accepting or giving (what is the benefit to the Queensland community)	Name of accountable officer or supervisor
20/01/2017	Wooden drum and sticks	$200	Hosanna Logan City Pacific Ministry	Borallon Training and Correctional Centre	Department	Ceremonial gift given to enhance Pacific Islander cultural practices within the centre.	Peter Henderson, General Manager, Borallon Training and Correctional Centre
03/02/2017	Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artwork	This gift will be considered as part of the department asset valuation program.	Uncle Alfred's Men's Group Townsville	Central and Northern Queensland Parole Board	Department	Accepted on behalf of the President of Queensland Parole Board for display in the Central and Northern Queensland conference room, respectively acknowledging Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people's culture	David Mackie Director-General, DJAG.
23/02/2017	Travel (including airfares) and accommodation expenses to attend body corporate seminars convened by the Strata Community Management	$1,042	Strata Community Management	Chris Irons, Commissioner for Body Corporate and Community Management	Employee	Gift enables the Commissioner to attend the SCA convened seminars in Cairns and Townsville. Seminar attendees will provide feedback on the service delivery of the Commissioner's Office, as well as receive update on a	David Mackie Director-General, DJAG.

Date given or received	Description of gift or benefit	Value	Name of donor	Name of recipient	For gifts received was the gift: a) retained by employee; or b) Retained by agency	Reasons for accepting or giving (what is the benefit to the Queensland community)	Name of accountable officer or supervisor
	(SCA) in Cairns (25 May 2017) and Townsville (26 May 2017)					number of topical body corporate matters.
15/03/2017	Conference registration fee and accommodation expenses	$1,210	Strata Community Management	Chris Irons, Commissioner for Body Corporate and Community Management	Employee	The SCA is the peak body for the community titles sector in Queensland and the Commissioner and his Office enjoy a strong collaborative relationship, often working together on the delivery of information and educational seminars, webinars and other events. The Commissioner was invited to present and attend the 2017 SCA state conference, scheduled for 15-17 March 2017. The SCA offered to meet the Commissioner's expenses for attending the conference, in the form of the registration fees and accommodation expenses at the conference venue. By attending the	David Mackie Director-General, DJAG.

Date given or received	Description of gift or benefit	Value	Name of donor	Name of recipient	For gifts received was the gift: a) retained by employee; or b) Retained by agency	Reasons for accepting or giving (what is the benefit to the Queensland community)	Name of accountable officer or supervisor
						conference the Commissioner was able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promote and reiterate to attendees – who comprised body corporate managers, caretakers, legal practitioners and other sector stakeholders – the services provided by the Commissioner’s Office; • Meet with a range of sector professionals and in the process, clarify some sector practices and improve overall sector compliance with legislation; and • Gather intelligence on emerging sector issues, which will inform how to enhance the delivery of the information and education services of the Commissioner’s Office. 	