

1. Introduction

1.1 General

The Port of Mourilyan is situated at the mouth of the Moresby River and is approximately 1600 kilometres north of Brisbane and 20 kilometres to the south of the city of Innisfail. The port was established primarily for the export of raw sugar and molasses from the surrounding sugar mills and is serviced by a bulk sugar terminal which loads ships via a travelling rail mounted gantry at 1900 t/h. Occasionally live cattle, magnetite, and woodchips are also exported from the port.

Shipping legislation in Queensland is controlled by Maritime Safety Queensland (MSQ), a branch of the Department of Transport and Main Roads.

The state of Queensland is divided up into six regions, five of which are controlled by a Regional Harbour Master (RHM) and the sixth by a manager, all officers of Maritime Safety Queensland who report to the general manager and under the Transport Operations (Marine Safety) Act 1994, are responsible for:

- Improving maritime safety for shipping and small craft through regulation and education;
- Minimising vessel sourced waste and providing response to marine pollution;
- Providing essential maritime services such as aids to navigation; and
- Encouraging and supporting innovation in the maritime industry.

The limit of Queensland coastal waters is defined by a line three nautical miles seaward of the territorial sea baseline. The arrangements outlined in these procedures apply to the geographical areas gazetted as pilotage areas in Queensland. Pilotage areas have been gazetted around designated ports and maritime areas to ensure the safe and efficient movement of shipping. These areas encompass the approaches, main shipping channel and waters of the port.

Collectively, the harbour master and the port authority have responsibility for managing the safe and efficient operation of the port.
