

Sexual Violence Prevention Grants Program – 2020 successful applicants

Organisation name	Activity	Description	Location
Bond University Limited in partnership with Swinburne University of Technology	'Sexual Consent Toolkit'	Development of an online toolkit about consent for young people, educators, and community organisations.	Statewide
Centacare	'Poster and Peanut Silo Projection campaign – South Burnett'	Co-design workshops with survivors to develop videos and poster resources to support sexual violence prevention.	South Burnett - Kingaroy
Centre Against Sexual Violence Incorporated, 99 Steps CALD Domestic and Family Violence Program   Access Community Services Ltd, and Sahara House	'Healthy Relationships: Know Your Rights'	Workshops for culturally and linguistically diverse groups, and development and translation of resources for community distribution.	Logan and Beenleigh
Centre Against Sexual Violence Incorporated	'Ask, Listen, Respect'	Reproduction of resources (stickers, banners and drink coasters) developed for an existing, successful campaign by female survivors to raise awareness of sexual violence.	Logan and Redlands
Children by Choice Association Incorporated	'Know the Signs'	Social media awareness campaign targeting young people (and those who work with young people), develop youth friendly website content, and develop and deliver workshops to young people regarding reproductive coercion.	Statewide, Windsor
Domestic Violence Action Centre	'DVAC Sexual Violence Prevention Project'	Video development with young people challenging victim blaming and/or increasing knowledge and understanding of consent.	Ipswich, Toowoomba, Darling Downs, Lockyer Valley, Somerset, and Springfield regions

DVConnect Limited	'Educational video for hearing impaired'	Working with survivors of the hearing impaired community and Auslan interpreters to develop an educational video on sexual violence as a resource for people with hearing impairment.	Statewide
Multicultural Families Organisation	'Prevent. Support. Believe. Campaign'	Campaign including bus graphic design messaging, social media, community breakfast and free t-shirt printing activity.	Townsville
Palm Island Community Company Limited	'Palm Island Sexual Violence Awareness March and Video'	Community event including march, candlelight ceremony, stalls, guest speakers and free community barbecue, with the development of a video of community members standing up against sexual violence.	Palm Island
RizeUp Limited and R4Respect - YFS	'Peer-to-Peer respectful relationships education'	Social media campaign and workshops for young people via 3 educational settings, with a focus on healthy relationships and prevention of technology-facilitated abuse.	Statewide and Southport
True Relationships and Reproductive Health	'True Conversations about Sexual Violence Prevention'	Radio and print campaign in Cairns on sexual violence prevention.	Cairns
WWILD – Sexual Violence Prevention Association Incorporated	'Let's talk about sex, baby'	Resource development and 2 workshops with people with disability about sex, consent, safety and healthy relationships.	Woolloowin