

Employer resource assessment – Automotive Glazing Technology (specified)

TO BE COMPLETED AND RETAINED BY THE SUPERVISING REGISTERED TRAINING ORGANISATION FOR AUDIT PURPOSES

This form is made available to assist a supervising registered training organisation (SRTO) to comply with their obligations under the Further Education and Training Act 2014 (FET Act), and Skills Assure supplier (SAS) agreement where applicable.

The employer resource assessment (ERA) is an approved form under the FET Act. It is a report about an employer's capacity to provide or arrange to provide the range of work, facilities and supervision required under a training plan. A guide for SRTOs has been developed to assist with completing the ERA.

Apprenticeships and traineeships are employment-based training pathways to obtaining a qualification or statement of attainment. It is essential the employment arrangements, including facilities, range of work and supervision, support the apprenticeship or traineeship outcome. When a registered training organisation agrees to become the SRTO for an apprentice or trainee, the SRTO must assess the employer's capacity to provide the facilities, range of work and supervision, and complete the ERA when preparing the training plan required for the apprenticeship or traineeship.

The FET Act requires the SRTO to take all reasonable steps to ensure the training plan is signed:

- within 3 months of the start of the apprenticeship or traineeship, or
- within 28 days of a change of SRTO or permanent transfer of the training contract.

Throughout the life of the training plan, the SRTO has an ongoing role in monitoring the employment arrangements to ensure there are no changes which impact the employer's capacity to continue to provide the training. The ERA must be reviewed as a minimum every 3 months, which aligns with the process of reviewing the training record. However, changes to the training plan and/or the commencement of additional apprentices in the workplace in the same qualification will also require the SRTO to review the ERA. Evidence of all reviews must be retained by the SRTO. Attachment 1 may be used to record details of ERA reviews.

If the employer is unable to provide, or arrange to provide the training resources necessary to achieve the outcomes of the training plan, and is unwilling/unable to negotiate alternative arrangements, the SRTO must not commit to the training plan and must immediately advise the employer, the Apprentice Connect Australia Provider (Provider) and the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training (DESBT).

Supervision arrangements for specified qualifications

Part B of this form is used to record the agreement of an employer and apprentice to flexible supervision arrangements. An apprentice must be deemed eligible in accordance with the requirements outlined in the department's Adequate training arrangements – Certificate III in Automotive Glazing Technology document.

Where the employer is a GTO or PEO

In the case of a group training organisation (GTO) or principal employer organisation (PEO), the SRTO is required to complete an ERA for the first host employer's workplace. For permanent transfers where the new employer is a GTO/PEO, an ERA is required to be completed for the first host employer. It is not a requirement to review the ERA at 3 monthly intervals for GTO/PEO contracts.

Privacy declaration

In completing this form, the SRTO named confirms that where any personal information is included in the answers provided, the SRTO:

- has taken all reasonable steps to be satisfied that the relevant person has provided their consent (either express or implied) to the SRTO disclosing that information to DESBT; or
- is satisfied that it is otherwise authorised or required under a law to disclose that information to DESBT or the Provider.

For the purposes of this form, 'personal information' means information or an opinion, including information forming part of a database, whether true or not, and whether recorded in material form or not, about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion.

NUMBER OF APPRENTICES TO QUALIFIED PERSONS (SUPERVISORS)

As part of the SRTO’s responsibility to assess an employer’s capacity to provide adequate training arrangements, the SRTO is to determine if the apprentice’s supervisor can:

- supervise other apprentices at a workplace where the apprenticeship is being completed; or
- not supervise any other apprentices at a workplace where the apprenticeship is being completed.

Where an SRTO determines a supervisor can supervise other apprentices, they must justify how an employer is providing adequate supervision.

For the purposes of the training arrangements under the Further Education and Training Act 2014, a qualified person for apprenticeships is:

1. A person who has satisfactorily completed an apprenticeship in the apprentice's calling in Australia, and is the holder of a completion certificate issued under an Act, or
2. A person who holds a certificate of recognition issued under an Australian Act, certifying the person has the necessary skills and knowledge in the calling, or
3. An Australian tradesperson in the apprentice's calling, as defined under a specific industrial instrument, or
4. A New Zealand tradesperson in the apprentice’s calling whose occupation may be recognised under the Trans-Tasman Mutual Recognition (Queensland) Act 2003, or as applicable for Norfolk Island, or
5. A person who holds a relevant qualification in the apprenticeship calling, or
6. A person individually, or persons collectively, who has/have documented competence (i.e. a testamur/qualification and associated record of results or a statement of attainment as recognised under the Australian Qualifications Framework, achieved through an RPL or training pathway) in all the competencies the employer is required to provide training for under the apprentice's training plan.

And, where a worker is required to have a licence to practise the calling/occupation, the qualified person holds a current worker’s licence.

Total number of full-time apprentices in the identified qualification, in the workplace:

Total number of school-based or part-time apprentices in the identified qualification, in the workplace: (Note: School-based cannot be deemed eligible for flexible supervision as per Part B of this document.)
--	--

Number of qualified persons in the workplace that can provide training under the apprentice’s training plan: (Note: If using a collective they are counted as ONE qualified person.)
--	--

Where there are more apprentices than qualified persons, provide a summary of why supervision arrangements have been determined sufficient and complete APPENDIX ONE.

Flexible supervision arrangements and agreement

This Part B of the ERA is only to be used once a determination is made by the SRTO that an apprentice is eligible for flexible supervision arrangements. These arrangements must be agreed to and supported by the apprentice, employer and SRTO and comply with the requirements outlined in the department's Adequate training arrangements – Certificate III in Automotive Glazing Technology document.

This Part B, once completed, must be retained by the employer and SRTO for audit purposes.

These arrangements are not to be used for school-based apprentices.

Flexible supervision arrangements may apply to apprentices undertaking an Automotive Glazing Technician: Certificate III in Automotive Glazing Technology apprenticeship.

Minimum requirements for the apprentice to work without supervision

Has the apprentice demonstrated knowledge and skills appropriate to the role in the following? Yes No

- client communication and customer service
- workplace health and safety
- environmental management
- working methods and quality.

The employer and apprentice are aware of, and have a plan in place for, the following key activities: Yes No

- Provide detailed technical instructions for the apprentice for each new customer/location by a supervisor or appropriately qualified co-worker.
- A supervisor is accessible to the apprentice in person or by phone for the duration of the planned off-site work.
- Face-to-face supervision meetings must occur daily prior to an apprentice leaving the workshop to provide adequate support and direction. Regular meetings must also occur, at intervals of not greater than 3 months, to monitor progress under the training plan. The supervisor must also obtain regular feedback from the apprentice and, where appropriate, the customers, to be used as evidence in the above mentioned progress meetings.
- The apprentice's work tasks need to be clearly defined and must be retained by the employer and made available to DESBT staff on request.
