or all police officers of the Queensland Police Service.

I, a Justice, after hearing a sworn application by
Sergeant Lou TENNANT
(Rank and name of applicant officer)

am satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting warrant evidence or property is at the below mentioned place.

Details of place: 1 Caper Street, Townsville QLD 4810

A police officer may lawfully exercise the following powers under this search warrant:

- power to enter the place stated in the warrant and to stay on it for the time reasonably necessary to exercise powers authorised under the warrant;
- power to pass over, through, along or under another place to enter the relevant place;
- power to search the relevant place for anything sought under the warrant;
- power to open anything in the relevant place that is locked;
- power to detain anyone at the relevant place for the time reasonably necessary to find out if the person has anything sought under the warrant;
- if the police officer reasonably suspects a person on the relevant place has been involved in the commission of an offence, power to detain the person for the time taken to search the place;
- power to dig up land;
- power to seize a thing found at the relevant place, or on a person found at the relevant place, that the police officer reasonably suspects may be warrant evidence or property to which the warrant relates;
- power to muster, hold and inspect any animal the police officer reasonably suspects may provide warrant evidence or property to which the warrant relates;
- power to photograph anything the police officer reasonably suspects may provide warrant evidence or property to which the warrant relates;
- power to remove wall or ceiling linings or floors of a building, or panels of a vehicle, to search for warrant evidence or property.

A police officer has the following power(s):

- power to search anyone found at the place for anything sought under the warrant that can be concealed on the person
