

Youth Justice Pocket Stats 2023

Did you know...

43% of young people who have a finalised court appearance never return to the Youth Justice System^a

There were 572,738

children aged 10 to 17 years in Queensland in 2023

1 in 170 Queensland children aged 10 to 17 had a proven offence (0.6%)

1 in 479 Queensland children aged 10 to 17 were supervised in the community on an average day (0.2%)

1 in 1850 Queensland children aged 10 to 17 were in custody on an average day (0.05%)

Notes:

- a. Based on the number of lifetime court appearances for the cohort of young people with a finalised court appearance in 2023 who were eligible to have an offence finalised in the Youth Justice System.
- b. For young people who had a new charged offence within 12 months of their earliest finalisation with a proven offence in 2022.
- c. Includes theft, break and enter and unlawful use of motor vehicle.
- d. Includes traffic-related offences, public order offences, fraud and miscellaneous offences.
- e. Custody is defined as young people in a youth detention centre on pre-court custody, remand or sentence or in a police watchhouse/other custody location (e.g. in police transit or hospital) on remand or sentence. It excludes young people on pre-court custody in locations other than a youth detention centre.
- f. Includes both remand and pre-court custody.

Offender profile

- 3398 young people had at least one proven offence
- 70% Male
- 54% Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
- 70% Re-offended within 12 months^b
- 485 Serious repeat offenders on an average day in 2023
- 48 Serious repeat offender declarations as at 31 December 2023

Complexity of young offenders (Census 2023)

- 81% have used at least one substance
- 38% in youth justice custody^e have used ice or other methamphetamines
- 53% have experienced or been impacted by domestic and family violence
- 44% have a mental health and/or behavioural disorder (diagnosed or suspected)
- 48% are not enrolled in education, or in training, or in employment
- 25% have at least one parent who spent time in adult custody
- 30% in unstable and/or unsuitable accommodation
- 44% have a disability (assessed or suspected)

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders representation: Compared to non-Indigenous young people, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people were:

- 13 x as likely to have a proven offence
- 22 x as likely to receive a supervised order
- 24 x as likely to be held in Youth Justice custody
- 24 x as likely to be on remand

Proven offences

46,388 total finalised charges proven

Custody^e (on an average day)

- 309 young people in custody (71% Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander)
- 272 young people in unsentenced custody^f (70% Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander)
- 53 days average sentenced duration
- 48 days average unsentenced^f duration

Orders

- 1604 young people received a total of 3583 supervised orders
- 1511 young people received a total of 2867 community-based orders
- 82% of community-based orders were successfully completed
- 3059 restorative justice referrals received (62% court-referred; 38% police referred)