Privacy statement

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) is collecting your personal information for the purpose of adding your details to a list of Queensland barristers who have expressed interest in doing government work. The list is available to Queensland Government lawyers and administrative officers involved in briefing counsel. The personal information collected on this form will also be provided on request to private law firms seeking to brief counsel on behalf of departments across the Queensland Public Service. For more information about how DJAG manages personal information please refer to DJAG's Privacy Guide.
