I took this quote from the Review of Public Interest Act 2010 from the website.

"The PID Act facilitates reports of wrongdoing in the public sector when it is in the public interest to do so...."

As a member of the public, I'd like to know if one or more of OUR public officials has done something WRONG. It's decisively up to us, we should also be deciding what happens to the wrong-doer that WE elect.

Public officials, the ones we elect as a trusting public, clearly don't have the public's best interests at heart if they're doing the wrong thing. They should be on trial.
